

Conference registration

The registration to the conference is open. You can register by faxing (or emailing) the form available on the registration and fee page.

The registration to the conference is open. You can register by faxing (or emailing) the form available on the registration and fee page. Early registration is available until May 31. A limited number of student grants is available for a reduced conference fee (deadline for application: May 15). At least one registration per paper is required by APRIL 19 (same deadline as the camera ready submissions).